SLEAC President's Message for October 2023

Our Fall events were both very successful once again.

The Golf Day Event had 67 members and guests who enjoyed a sandwich buffet after their round at the Forest Golf Club and Inn.

The Fish Fry served 155 members and guests to a wonderful meal put on by the Camlachie Huron Shores Optimist Club.

Next event is the Christmas Dinner Dance Thursday November 30, 2023, registration details are in this newsletter. The Sarnia Complex Manager and VP of Chemicals, Eloissa Wells and Public and Government Affairs Manager, Kristina Zimmer are both planning to attend.

I am also providing two links for NeighbourLink Sarnia-Lambton if any members would like to sponsor their homeless bag community outreach ($45-$50 a bag) <https://neighbourlinksarnia.org/bags/> or a donation toward their walk-a-thon <https://neighbourlinksarnia.org/donate-to-a-team/>
They were very grateful for our support.

In order to continue to organize and present our slate of events we require more committee members. Please consider joining our Committee as the Executive has openings in 2024 for President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Webmaster.

Looking forward to seeing many of our members at the Christmas Dinner Dance.

From the Editor:

We are looking forward to the annual Christmas dinner and dance.

We are not looking forward to the colder weather.

Does that mean we are getting older?

Did you know that . . .

We have a wonderfully healthy and active club!
As of this past planning committee meeting, we have 368 members.
Kudos to all of our members for helping to make our club healthy.

Upcoming events

Hold the date!	November 30 – Christmas Dinner at the Dante Club (details in this newsletter)
